Remuneration report 2022

This report describes how the annual general meeting's guidelines for remuneration in the H&M group, as adopted by the 2021 annual general meeting (AGM), were applied in the 2021/2022 financial year. It also describes the H&M group's remuneration to the CEO and fees to the board other than the board fees approved by the general meeting. The report has been prepared in accordance with the Swedish Companies Act and the Swedish Corporate Governance Board's Rules on Remuneration of the Board and Executive Management and on Incentive Programmes.

The required disclosures relating to remuneration of senior executives under the Swedish Annual Accounts Act can be found in note 7 on page 123 in the company's annual and sustainability report 2022 ("annual and sustainability report 2022").

KEY DEVELOPMENTS IN 2022

Information about H&M Group's overall performance in 2022 can be found in the CEO letter on pages 8-9 of the annual and sustainability report 2022.

SHARE-BASED REMUNERATION

H&M Group does not have a share-based or share options-based programme for the remuneration of the CEO¹ or any other senior executive².

COMPLIANCE WITH THE REMUNERATION GUIDELINES AND APPLICATION OF PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

The remuneration guidelines adopted by the 2021 AGM can be found on pages 80-83 of the annual and sustainability report 2022. During 2022 the H&M group has made one deviation from the remuneration guidelines adopted by the AGM 2021. One member of the executive management team has had a pension contribution above the maximum contribution level stated in the guidelines. The deviation has been made in order to comply with the collective agreed pension plans ITP in Sweden. No deviations or derogations have been made from the decision-making process that, according to the guidelines, is to be applied to determine the remuneration.

The auditor's statement regarding the company's compliance with the guidelines can be found on the company's website with the documents for the 2023 annual general meeting: hmgroupp.com/agm/.

1) Helena Helmersson holds 300,000 call options issued by Ramsbury Invest AB where each option provides the right to buy one class B share in H&M during the 12-month period that follows a three-year period from the agreement date of 7 October 2020. The options issued have no dilution effect for H&M shareholders or cost to the H&M group since they are issued against Ramsbury Invest AB's existing shareholding.

2) The long-term variable remuneration is based on the target fulfilment measured over five financial years starting from 2021 financial year and ending at the closure of the 2025 financial year. After the measurement period has ended the board is responsible for the long-term variable remuneration for the CEO.

A prerequisite for the successful implementation of H&M Group's business strategy and safeguarding of its long-term interests, including its sustainability, is the ability to attract, recruit and retain qualified personnel. The H&M group's remuneration guidelines enable the offering of a competitive remuneration to the CEO. The total remuneration to the CEO in 2022 complied with H&M Group's remuneration guidelines.

BOARD FEES AND CONSULTING FEES

Board fees are not covered by this report. Such fees are decided each year by the annual general meeting. See note 7 on page 123 of the annual and sustainability report 2022.

In 2022 Patriksson Group AB, where board member Lena Patriksson Keller is the majority shareholder, performed consulting work for the H&M group for a total sum of SEK 10.6 m (SEK 6.4 m). Patriksson Group is one of Scandinavia's foremost fashion communications agencies and aim of the services provided by Patriksson Group is to strengthen brand communication for some of the H&M group's brands, namely H&M, COS, & Other Stories, and ARKET. The consulting fees are not affected by the remuneration guidelines passed by the general meeting since the work was not performed by Lena Patriksson Keller, and Patriksson Group is moreover not wholly owned by Lena Patriksson Keller. Nonetheless, the board wishes to specifically disclose in the remuneration report that the fees were paid. Procurement of the services in question, for which payment was made at market levels, was deemed to be appropriate and of benefit to H&M and took place without the involvement of Lena Patriksson Keller.
